
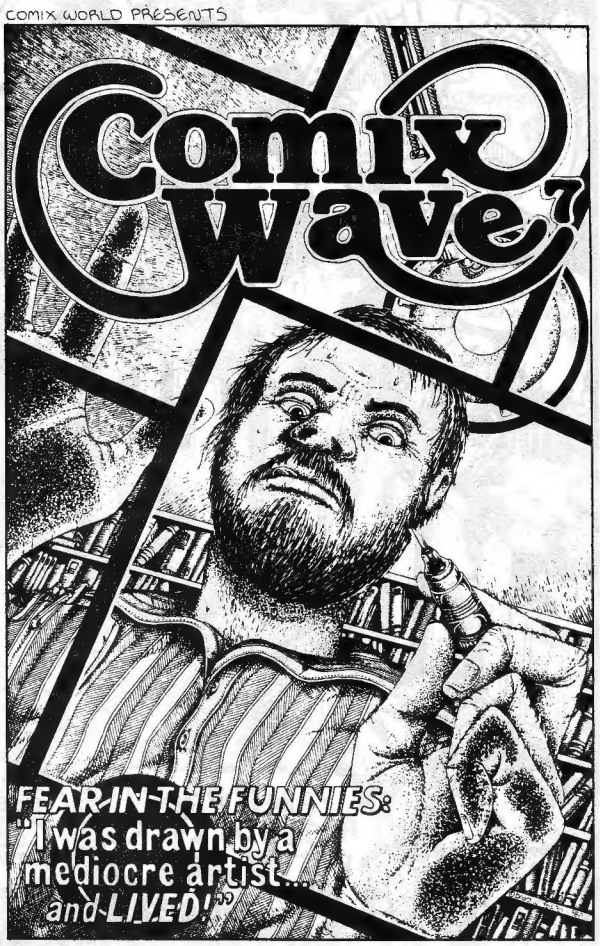
COMIX WORLD PRESENTS



COMIX WORLD 193. March 25, 1982. ©Clay Geerdes, Box 7081, Berkeley, CA 94707. All Rights Reserved. Logo by John Howard whose most recent work appears in COMIX WAVE 6 (and psst--his new story is coming up in #8. Out in May 1982.).* And it's WEIRDO 4, not 3, that's out this week--To celebrate that event, Robert Crumb is coming to Berkeley. He'll be at COMICS AND COMIX, 2461 Telegraph Avenue, on Thursday evening, March 25, from 7-9 pm. I'll be there for that event and you can read about it in my next issue.* The cover to my forthcoming anthology of mini-art, MINIVERSAL FUNNIES, is so outstanding I just couldn't wait to show it to all of you so I'm running it a full-page on the back of this issue. Brad Foster has done a superlative job of synthesizing numerous images from the minis in what has to be an excellent tribute to all who have made the newave the creative focus of the 80s. Brad designed and rendered the cover for COMIX WAVE 7 and he has recently contracted to do a coloring book for a Bay Area publisher. Below is his cover for QUARK 1 (available from Jerry Goebert, the author, 125 S. Main St., Greensburg, PA 15601. 50¢/stamp, QUARK II from COMIX WORLD, 50¢/stamp). Foster is the publisher of FEVER PITCH and #5 may be out this Summer. He lives in Texas. MINIVERSAL will be out later this year. Any of you who have participated in the COMIX WORLD MINI-SERIES and wish to make a comment on the overall scene (short and sweet, okay?) should write to me in the next couple of months. If you want to contribute to COMIX WAVE, 8's full, but there is space in 9 and 10. The artsize (not the paper size) has to be 5 1/2 x 8 1/2 if you want your art to look right in print. I suggest you get on it if you want some space. I fill the issues as the art comes in and when the space is full, that's it. Someone mentioned that COMIX WAVE was getting a little artsy, well, it's an artzine, but I do want it to head in a more humorous direction, so bear that in mind.* Harry Onickel's MODERN DEPRESSION mag is a buck (you get two sizes of the same ish) from 1287 Cole, Birmingham, MI 48008. -Clay

Tom Brinkman says TATTOOED PAPER is $3 from him at 4 Cranberry Drive, Islip, NY 11751. SPEWATHON and RETCHATHON are 25¢ each.* GUTS 2 is great fun. $1.50 pp from Steve Lafler, POB 982, Eugene, ORE 97440. Coming soon: DEATH RATTLE 5.
